

Mendelssohn, Dutilleux, Janáček & Beethoven: Works for Cello

This program is played by the young winner of the 2013 German Music Competition. He chose the pieces well. Each one is full of beauty and personality; and he and Heiss play them with passion, humor, and accuracy. I should add mystery, since the three solo Strophes by Henri Dutilleux, Leos Janacek's Fairy Tale, and the slow movement of the Beethoven Sonata are full of that feeling, portrayed with beauty by the players and recorded in a lovely sound. Altogether this is a fine introduction to a talented young cellist. © 2015 American Record Guide
